The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits credit grantors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this credit grantor is the Federal Trade Commission.

TERMS AGREEMENT

For the purpose of establishing credit with JC IMPORT COMPANY (hereafter "JCI"), the undersigned applicant(s) furnish and represent the information set forth in this application and credit agreement as true and accurate. It is understood and agreed that in deciding whether or not to extend credit to licensee, JCI is relying on the truth of the information furnished herein regarding licensee's credit. Licensee authorizes JCI to contact licensee's credit references and credit history. Except as agreed herein, JCI will not disclose your private information unless it is required to do so by law, to verify your continuing financial stability or in an effort or action to collect your unpaid debt to JCI. JCI will store and dispose of your private information in accordance with law and reasonable business practices. It is understood and agreed that JCI reserves the right to refuse to extend credit to licensee at any time.

The undersigned understands and agrees to JCI's terms of sale:

1. All invoices are due thirty (30) days from the date thereof.
2. All sales are made in accordance with state law.
3. A one and one half percent (1.5%) finance charge will be charged on all past-due invoices from the thirty-first (31st) day from the date of delivery and each thirty (30) days thereafter.
4. The maximum charge allowed by Rhode Island Law will be assessed on checks returned by the bank.
